Medford, OR 97501

Presenters will be Fintan Mullan, Executive Director of the Ulster Historical Foundation (UHF) in Belfast, Ireland, and Gillian Hunt, Research Officer from the UHF.

Seminar Schedule:

Introduction to Irish and Scots-Irish Family History Research

A broad overview of Scots-Irish and Irish research, benefiting beginners and seasoned genealogists alike, it is practical, wide-ranging and informative using visual aids and exploring the major collections, the destruction of records in 1922, and the importance of place and administrative divisions in Ireland, the importance of doing your homework of records and how to access them.

Using Land Records: Griffith's Valuation, Tithe and Estate records

This session covers the major land collections including, Griffith Valuation, tithe applotment books and tithe defaulters lists, the published Ordnances Survey Memoirs and OS maps. It also explores some other census substitutes for the nineteenth and late eighteenth centuries.

The Ulster Plantation: Sources for 17th Century Families in Ireland (not just Ulster)

This talk will look at those sources which can throw light on Ulster families in the seventeenth century. It identifies documents relating to the Ulster Plantation (1610-41) which can be used to construct profiles of settler families. It also considers sources from the second half of the seventeenth century, such as hearth money rolls, the Civil Survey and poll books, which are of use to genealogists working in this period.

Solving Your Brick Walls/Q&A

With the huge explosion of online records on the internet, we have found in recent years the 'solving your brick walls' to be an important part of the programme. This session can help the beginner and the seasoned genealogist alike. The speakers use a range of online resources (including the most important ppv sites like rootsireland.ie) and their local knowledge to offer participants practical tips about Irish and Scots-Irish research. The session combines straight forward Q&A interspersed with searches in real time online etc., for specific research queries submitted by the participants.
